

“Is that all??? No problem, I can take care of that right away! Go back to your iced tea by the pool!”

“I thought you might ask for that!!!
Actually, I already took care of it. It’s on its way!”

“Oh, that’s my specialty. I have LOTS of connections and will have a great time getting it all done for you. Go back to petting your pet!”

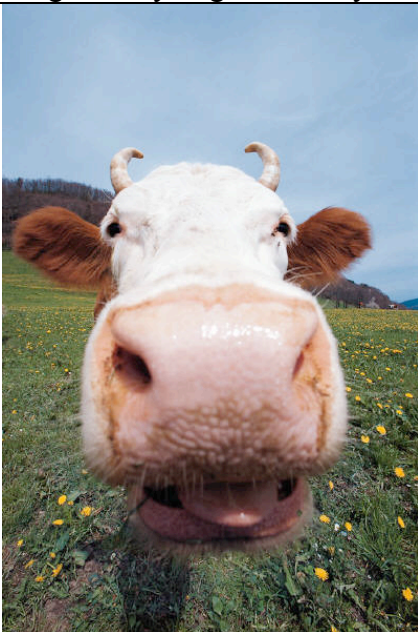

“I can definitely do that for you. I’m glad you asked. You can count on me that it’s on its way!”

“Funny you should ask, cause that’s what I already manifested for you during manager-scouts today after school. I love being a manager for you. I get to do all these great projects – I get my manager-badges and you get all that you want!”

“Every time I burp I get to grant you a desire. And that’s good news for you case BOY do I love root beer!”

“I’ve been munching on that for a while, and I know the PERFECT thing to do. Have faith, I’ll have it to you in the perfect timing.”

“I will conduct the universe to bring that to you! Being a conductor of universal conditions is what I’m here for! “

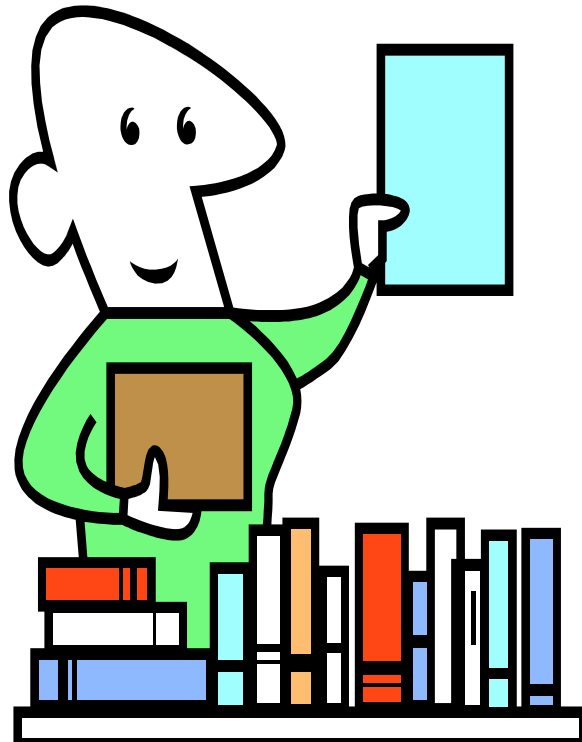

“Yes, I am serving you what you asked for on a silver platter. Is there anything else I can get for you.”

“I’m going to do a little detective work and bring that right along to you. What I need you to do is return to the side of the pool and have some fun relaxing in the sun.”

“I’ll take care of that right away, just the way you like it!”
